GREAT LAKES UNITED

Memo

To: GLU Board of Directors
From: Phil Weller
Re: Board Retreat June 26-28, 1992
Date: June 5, 1992

This memo gives you the information you need to make travel arrangements to the Great Lakes United summer retreat in Eagle (near Lansing) Michigan. The retreat will begin on the Friday evening June 26 at 7:30 pm and will end at noon on Sunday June 28.

The location for the retreat will be the Finkbeiner residence at 13750 Hardenburg Trail, Eagle, Michigan. The phone number is (517) 626-6680. Attached to this memo you will find a map which tells you how to get to retreat.

We have arranged a block of rooms at the Red Roof Inn, which is located a few miles from the Finkbeiners house. Red Roof Inn's address is 7412 West Saginaw Highway, Lansing, Michigan, phone number is 715-321-7246. Please call Michelle at the Great Lakes United office by June 19 to let her know what your accomodation needs are. As usual to cut costs we need to have people sharing rooms so if you have a preference on who you stay with please let Michelle know.

The retreat will be facilitated by Edward Easton, Director of the Institute for Conservation Leadership. The goals of the retreat are:

- 1) To define a clear vision of who we are as an organization and what our specific role and functions are.
- 2) To determine how best we can accomplish our goals, including
 - a) Program emphasis and direction
 - b) Board Member roles
 - c) Board/Staff relationships

To help everyone prepare, it is my understanding that some preparatory materials will be sent to you shortly by the Institute. As you all know, this is our tenth anniversary year and we are looking at this meeting as a mechanism to bind us together with a common vision and purpose and to give us direction and momentum for the next "ten" years.

I look forward to seeing you at the retreat and if you have any questions give us a call at the Buffalo office.
