

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA FOR:

Peter F. Rice, B.Sc.F., M.Sc.F., Ph.D., R.P.F.

Born, May 18, 1939, Toronto

Elementary and Secondary Schools in Toronto

Bachelor of the Science of Forestry (B.Sc.F.) University of Toronto, 1962

Master of Science in Forestry (M.Sc.F.) University of Toronto, 1964 - majoring in Forest Pathology

Ph.D. in Botany, University of Toronto, 1968 - majoring in Forest Pathology

Graduate work under the direction of Professor Erik Jorgensen, Shade Tree Research Laboratory, University of Toronto (now Director, University Arboretum, University of Guelph)

Lecturer in Forest Pathology, Faculty of Forestry, University of Toronto, 1966-68

Plant Pathologist, Royal Botanical Gardens, Hamilton - 1968 to present

Duties: Research, extension and education with respect to pathology of ornamental plants

Insect pest, disease and weed control at Royal Botanical Gardens.

Societies:

President - Ontario Shade Tree Council, 1973-74.

Chairman - Ontario Ornamentals Research Committee, 1974, 1975

Chairman - Ecological and Environmental Advisory Committee of Council, Regional Municipality of Halton, 1978

Councillor - Ontario Forestry Association, 1980, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984

Director - Burlington Horticultural Society, 1976-80

Member - American Association of Botanical Gardens and Arboreta
- Canadian Phytopathological Society
- Ontario Professional Foresters Association
- International Society of Arboriculture
- American Phytopathological Society

Committees:

Chairman - Publications Committee, Royal Botanical Gardens

Chairman - Honour Roll of Ontario Trees Committee, OFA, 1980, 1981, 1982, 1983, 1984

Member - Planning and Public Relations Committees, Royal Botanical Gardens

- Advisory Committee, Humber Arboretum, Humber College, 1978 -

- Ontario Crop Protection Committee, O.M.A.F.

Married in 1964 to Eleanor - 2 daughters.

May, 1983